

By John Jacobson

The scene opens on a stage devoid of holiday decorations.

SONG 1: Rock the Hall!

SCENE 1

BAYLOR: Happy holidays everybody, and welcome to our show!

AMELIA: We've been working very hard on this holiday musical present for you, and we hope that it helps you get into the holiday spirit!

DAWSON: Wait a minute! Wait a minute!

CORA: What is it Dawson?

AVA: Yeah! What's up with you?

DAWSON: Well, you just said that we've been working very hard on this holiday musical present for everyone, and yet I don't see any decorations, or giftwrapping or colorful costumes or anything. The room looks just like it always does. And frankly, so do we!

SOFIA: Well, I guess you're right. It does look a little bare. We just ran out of time learning all our festive songs and dances, we never got around to actually decorating.

JAYDEN: But wait! There's still time. If we all pitch in, I bet we can decorate this place in no time ... and ourselves as well.

AMOS: Well, what are we waiting for?

SONG 2: Deck, Deck, Decorate December

(During the song the cast and crew decorate the stage and don holiday costumes.)

SCENE 2

KARSON: Now that's more like it! All of these decorations and costumes make it seem a lot more like Christmas!

EMMA: December is the season of giving. It is wonderful to get a gift from somebody. But no matter what the gift is, it is even more special when the gift giver has taken the time to wrap the present in colorful paper, maybe even with a ribbon and a bow.

JAXON: That's right! Just seeing all of those presents wrapped and stuffed in stockings or under a tree puts me in the holiday spirit.

DASH: Me too! Especially when I see my name on the card!

ANABELLE: So now that we've decorated this place up a bit we can really call our music a present to all of you.

JAYDEN: And we hope that our present gets you into the wonderful spirit of the season.

SONG 3: Spirit of the Season

SCENE 3

NYJAH: People of the Jewish faith show the spirit of this season by celebrating Hanukkah at this time of year.

PIPER: They decorate their homes in blue, white and silver.

Copyright © 2016 by HAL LEONARD LLC
International Copyright Secured All Rights Reserved

The original subscriber to Music Express magazine has permission to reproduce this page for educational use only. Any other use is strictly prohibited.

BO: And when the Latkes are eaten, the dreidel spun, and the candles of the menorah all lit up, they often join hands in a circle and dance the Hora.

SAYLOR: Hey let's rock this hall with a circle dance!

CAYDEN: I thought you'd never ask!

SONG 4: Hanukkah! O Hanukkah!

SCENE 4

HAYDEN: (holding a piñata) Hey look! I've got another decoration to add to the celebration.

ALL: A Piñata!

DYLAN: In Mexico, people rock their halls with happy singing and dancing celebrating Las Posadas and Feliz Navidad!

ALEJANDRA: (amazed) Nice Spanish, (fill in name)!

DYLAN: (smugly) Gracias!

JAKHAYA: Do we really get to break the piñata at the end of the song?

BO: Well, unfortunately no, it's just a prop. We're on a budget and might need it for another show.

JAKHAYA: Oh well. We can still have fun! Feliz Navidad everybody!

ALL: Feliz Navidad!

SONG 5: Feliz Navidad!

SCENE 5

MIA: This has been a wonderful way to celebrate December together.

T. REASOR: I just love this time of year. The lights, the music, the food, the presents!

SAYLOR: I'd have to say that being together with family and friends and rocking the hall together makes me want to keep on rocking this Christmas!

T. ROSALES: I feel a song coming on!

SONG 6: Rockin' Around the Christmas Tree

SCENE 6

SOFIA: Well, that's about all we know. We hope that you have enjoyed this musical present that we have prepared for you.

LAINEY: We hope that whether you celebrate Christmas ...

JACIE: ... or Hanukkah ...

ALEJANDRA: or Las Posadas ...

KAMERON: ... or Kwanzaa ...

MADELYN: ... or all of the above!

LAINEY: We hope that we have made your December a little bit brighter, and your hearts a little bit lighter!

ALL: Happy holidays, everyone!!

REPRISE: Rock the Hall!